D. of L. Concert.

The concert, reception and ball given last night by the Lady Washington Council No. 1, D. of L., was a success. The song and dance, "Down Where the Pond Lilies Bloom," and the vocal solo, "My Mother's Motto," by Mr. James T. Quinn, were especially well rendered.

In the Police Court.

There were fourteen cases in the police court yesterday, of which nine were from Nell White's house. Harvey Frazier was fined $20 and costs for disorderly conduct at his home, and went up for thirty days. John Gattrell, on the same charge, got $5 and costs and went up for the same term. The others were plain cases and the fines were paid.

Death of Mr. Ralph Arkle.

The funeral of Mr. Ralph Arkle, who died recently at his home in Wetzel county, will take place Sunday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, from the residence of his brother, Justice George Arkle, at No. 40 Eleventh street. The burial will be in Mt. Wood cemetery.

The deceased was formerly very prominent in public affairs in this city, having filled the office of county assessor for the city district for three terms, and that of justice of the peace four years. He was also a member of council. Four children survive him, the eldest being sixteen and the youngest five years old.

An Enthusiastic Dakotan.

Prof. Joseph Devine, the state educational lecturer of North Dakota, who is visiting his relatives here, yesterday said that it seemed colder to him here, with the thermometer at 20° above zero, than it was in his adopted state, with the mercury 20° below. Prof. Devine thinks his Dakota is the greatest State in the Union, and after a talk with him the reporter seriously thought of emigrating out west, taking up a quarter section of school land, to get rich raising wheat and sugar beets, finally to die of old age, without having had a day's sickness. Prof. Devine will remain in Wheeling a week or ten days longer.

Transfers Recorded.

- February 6 by Guy R. C. Allen, special commissioner, to Catherine Prettyman, for $2,875, the western portion of the eastern part of lot 185, on the south side of Sixteenth street.
- February 11 by Henry Sonderman and wife to Henry Brinkman, for $1,000, the south half of lot 4 in square 5 in Sprigg & Ritchie's addition.

A Monster Attraction.

On Wednesday and Thursday next Webber's Big City Uncle Tom's Cabin Company will be at the Grand, opening with a grand matinee Wednesday afternoon. This is said to be one of the largest and finest "Uncle Tom" companies now before the public, and only plays the large cities, and the manager promises the grandest production of this old time drama ever seen in Wheeling. The scenery of this company is said to be something extraordinary.

A. W. Fremont.

Another good audience greeted A. W. Fremont in the great drama of "777" at the Grand last night. Mr. Fremont fully established his reputation as a good actor, and gave a fine performance, ably supported by splendid company. This afternoon there will be a matinee, and this evening closes the engagement. Those who have not seen this company should not fail to be on hand, as star, company and play are the best seen at the Grand for a long time.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use the California liquid laxative Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Co., printed near the bottom of the package.

The remarkable growth, which, till within two years, was brought about principally by one person telling another, is a monument to Garfield Tea's merits.

THE REPORT NOT TRUE.

A Minneapolisian Denies the Hotel Men of the Flour City.

Mr. E. J. A. Drennon, of Minneapolis, formerly of Martin's Ferry, is in the latter city on business for a few days, and says the city continues to grow. Asked concerning the truth in the report that the hotels up there were asking $50 a day for a single room during the Republican national convention in June, he smiled and said the first he had heard of that was on the train when near Chicago. He says he thinks the report, must have been circulated by speculators, who tried to buy up all of the most desirable rooms. The hotel-keepers, Mr. Drennon says, refused to rent their rooms to speculators at any price and propose to first accommodate the delegates to the convention. He thinks the city won't have any trouble about accommodating all who attend the convention, the hotel accommodations being first-class. The West House is one of the finest hotels in America, and they have many other good ones. The great Hotel Lafayette, at Minnetonka Lake, is within a half hour's ride of the Exposition building, in which the convention will be held, and White Bear Lake and Paul are both within a few miles of Minneapolis, so that visitors will find all the hotels they want.

The national convention of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor last fall was a bigger affair than the Republican convention will be, and the delegates and visitors were charmed with their entertainment and visit, Minneapolis, with a little more than one-half her present population, had no trouble entertaining the national G. A. R. convention a few years ago.

The Exposition building is one of the very best in the United States for such a convention, and the "Flour city" is one of the most beautiful in the world, says Mr. Drennon.

HE WAS NOT THE MAN.

A young Fellow Arrested on Suspicion of being the Assailant of Mrs. Moore.

There has been no sign of the young man who assaulted Mrs. James Moore on Thursday at her home at Echo Point, east of the city. People at Elm Grove thought they saw the man get on a train for the east there Thursday night, but the man they saw had an overcoat on and wore a mustache, neither of which the right man had.

Yesterday morning Officer Carney found two men on the street in East Wheeling, one of whom seemed to closely fit the description of the assailant. Both were locked up. The man whose clothing was exactly like that described gave his name as Charles Harold, and his companion as C. C. Stebbins. Both claimed to be steam fitters from Pittsburgh.

Stebbins was dismissed later and Harold held. A man who had seen the assailant identified this man. Mrs. Moore was sent for, and came to the city building. She said positively that this was not the man who struck her. The clothing was very like his, but his hair was much longer. The clothes was so nearly like those worn by the man who was at Mrs. Moore's that it was suspected the prisoner had exchanged with him. As there was no evidence to justify holding him longer, however, Chief McNichol dismissed him after several men who had seen the man at Echo Point said this was not he.
